

Expectation for International Cooperation in Education

March 12^(Tue), 2024 14:00-17:30

Participation : In person or Online

(Venue) Zenkokutoshikaikan Building , 2-4-2 Hirakawa-cho, Chiyoda-ku, Tokyo

<https://www.toshikaikan.or.jp/access/>

(Online) Zoom Webinar

Organized by: Ministry of Education, Culture, Sports, Science and Technology (MEXT)

Languages : Japanese with English simultaneous translation

Free of Charge

Amid calls for stronger collaboration with ASEAN and other countries of the Global South to build a peaceful, stable and prosperous international society, it has become increasingly important for Japan to engage in educational cooperation to meet the demands of the changing times. At this year's EDU-Port Symposium, various stakeholders will share specific initiatives and good practices in past cooperation and discuss the future direction and expectations for EDU-Port Japan projects.

Program

13:30	Registration
14:00	Opening Remarks	International Affairs Division, Minister's Secretariat, MEXT
14:10	Guest Speech	International Educational Cooperation of JICA and Expectations for EDU-Port KAMEI Haruko, Director General, Human Development Department, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)
14:40	Report (Egypt)	Internationalization and quality assurance of Tokkatsu aimed at fostering non-cognitive skills in Egypt KYOMEN Tetsuo, Associate Professor, University of Tsukuba
14:55	Report (Viet Nam, India, Egypt, etc.)	Learning through implementation of Japanese style of music education and return to Japanese education OTAKE Yuji, Group Manager, Music Popularization Group, Asia-Pacific Sales Division, Yamaha Corporation
15:10	Report (Cambodia)	The process of nationwide rollout of school health room system and implementation of school health checkup data management in Cambodia SHIMIZU Hiroko, Professor, Chronic Care/Adult Health Nursing, Faculty of Medicine, Kagawa University
15:25	Q&A
15:40	Break
15:55	Panel Discussion	Expectation for International Cooperation in Education SUZUKI Kan, Professor, University of Tokyo KITAMURA Yuto, Professor, University of Tokyo Speakers of Guest Speech and Reports
16:45	Closing Remark
16:50	Poster Session (In person) by the implementing organizations of EDU-Port Japan-adapted Projects
17:30	Closing

Speakers Profile (Guest Speech and Panel Discussion)

KAMEI Haruko

Director General, Human Development Department, Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Since she joined JICA in 1998, she served in several positions including Chief Representative of JICA Cambodia Office, Deputy Director General of Governance and Peace Building Department, Senior Director for Office of Gender Equality and Poverty Reduction, Director for South Asia Division responsible for operations in Sri Lanka and Maldives, Director for Basic Education Section.

SUZUKI Kan

Professor, University of Tokyo

After working at Ministry of International Trade and Industry and serving as the associate professor at Keio University, he spent the following 12 years as a member of the House of Councilors. He served as the State Minister and the former Super Advisor to the MEXT. He currently serves as a board member for the OECD Future of Education and Skills 2030 Project, Teach for All Global board member, etc.

KITAMURA Yuto

Professor, University of Tokyo

He graduated from University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA) and received Ph.D. in Education. His research areas include comparative education, international education development. He started his current position after working at the UNESCO, Nagoya University, and Sophia University. He also serves as a member of the Tokyo Metropolitan Board of Education. His recent publications: "Education in the age of SDGs"

Speakers Profile (Report of EDU-Port Japan-adapted Projects)

KYOMEN Tetsuo

Associate Professor, University of Tsukuba

He graduated from Waseda University and received Ph.D. in Education. His research areas include TOKKATSU, career education, comparative education. He started his current position after working at Aichi University of Education. He is a board member of Japanese Association for the Study of Extracurricular Activities and Japanese Society for the Study of Career Education. He also serves as a collaborator of National Institute for Educational Policy Research. His recent publications: "Comparative study of contemporary career education systems in Japan and France."

OTAKE Yuji

Group Manager, Music Popularization Group, Asia-Pacific Sales Division, Yamaha Corporation

After he joined Yamaha Corporation in 2006, he worked for sales and marketing of musical instruments in Japan and Asia-Pacific countries, as well as on music popularization initiatives. He participated in the EDU-Port Japan Platform since 2016 when it was launched. He started his current position from January 2024 after working in Indonesia (2012-2015) and Germany (2020-2023).

SHIMIZU Hiroko

Professor, Chronic Care/Adult Health Nursing, Faculty of Medicine, Kagawa University

Her specialties include clinical nursing, nursing education and psychology. She has served at Seibo Junior College, Tokyo Metropolitan University, and Kagawa University's professor as Deputy Director of Faculty of Medicine, etc. Her major research themes include spiritual care, simulation training, development of relaxation care etc., and overseas technology transfer of Japanese-style education. Her publications include "Human Care and Nursing" (editor and author), and "Dementia Care Book" (editor and author), and others.

Application / Contacts

The event is free of charge. Please register through the following URL.

<https://forms.gle/Uedn3FRPLdm2NGVD7>

Deadline : March 7th noon (JST).

Contacts : EDU-Port Japan Secretariat / Koei Research & Consulting Inc.

Email : ml-eduport@k-rc.co.jp

Tel : 03-3288-1164/070-4284-0592/070-2828-3257

(Available at 10:00~17:00 JST From Mon-Fri)

Register Here

